

P.S. Material Expo

Inspirations at P.S. Oberflächen

For 25 years now – during the realization of numerous projects – we have learned a lot about the perfect combination of product/customer needs on the one side and surface/material properties on the other side.

We open up completely new product options, implement ideas, save costs, and simplify designs for our customers through our day-to-day-efforts and continuous development.

We have made accessible our extensive knowledge about the variety of surface solutions, coating processes and material selection in the newly created material exhibition on our premises.

Since 2014, we present more than 2,000 surface samples and construction materials on more than 120 m² at our location in Sassenberg.

We invite you to a very special inspiration day at PS: Whether you have specific project issues, to let new ideas emerge or simply to get a decent overview about the possibilities and surface innovations – immerse yourself in our material world amidst exciting industrial culture.

We take time for you and discuss your ideas and project requirements free of charge.
